Mission:

To accept, manage and distribute contributions that will support Wisconsin FCCLA members who are learning to take informed, socially responsible, individual, family and career actions.

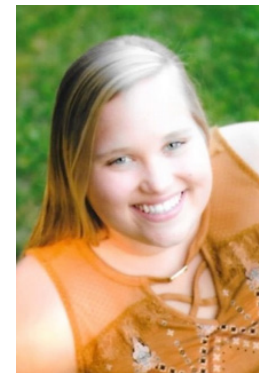

2018 Greetings from the Foundation President

The Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation would like to thank the individuals, chapters, advisers, corporations, businesses, and universities who made significant contributions to the foundations in 2017-2018. Your contributions helped to provide professional development opportunities for our Family & Consumer Sciences Educators serving as advisers, fund chapter projects representing the Family, Career, & Community Leaders of America's National Programs in their schools and community, provide a scholarship to an outstanding Wisconsin FCCLA Chapter member, and provided stipends for registration fees for 126 chapter members competing at the FCCLA National Leadership Conference's STAR (Students Taking Action with Recognition) Events held in Atlanta, GA. The foundation awarded a total of $5,835.00 to provide resources that promote Wisconsin FCCLA chapters, members and adviser. The generous and continued support from our contributors helps make our sponsored programs a huge success. The Board of Directors looks forward to continuing the sponsored programs highlighted in the 2018 Annual Report. We look forward to your continued support of Wisconsin FCCLA. Thank you for all your contributions!

Sincerely,
Bonnie Duchac

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Wisconsin Association of Family & Consumer Sciences Leader of the Year:

Marilyn Swiontek received the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS) Leader of the Year Award for 2018 this past June at the AAFCS Annual Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. As a 33 year veteran teacher in the Milwaukee Public Schools, Marilyn has been a South Division FCCLA Chapter Adviser for over thirty years. In retirement, she continues to volunteer at South Division, teaching an after-school baking class and assisting staff with service learning projects. She has inspired her students to plan and carry out numerous projects including peer education to address prevention of alcohol, drug, tobacco, and other risky behaviors, blood drives, health fairs, meal programs, elementary projects and Multicultural Club activities. Chapter members presented "Stop the Violence" workshops throughout Wisconsin and members presented a session at the National FCCLA Leadership Conference on "TXT and UR NXT".

She is a current member of the Wisconsin Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (WAFCS) board of directors and the treasurer on the WI FCCLA Foundation Board. She has served as president for the Wisconsin Family and Consumer Educators (WFCE) and was a member of the Milwaukee Public Schools advisory committee for service learning. She was inducted into the FCCLA National Leadership Hall of Fame, has previously earned national recognition as a Top Ten FCS Teacher of the Year for AAFCS and WAFCS Leader Award in 2017. Marilyn is truly an amazing leader in our FCS profession. Congratulations once again, Marilyn!

FUND RAISING

The Annual Foundation Raffle Generates Funds for National STAR Event Participants:

A special thank you goes out to all who generously donated gift baskets, gifts cards, gift items and purchased tickets for the raffle. This is the foundation's largest fund raiser and generates funds to provide a stipend to help pay registration fees to chapter members who compete in the National FCCLA STAR Events. This year's raffle was held at the Wisconsin FCCLA Leadership Conference in April at the Kalahari Convention Center in Wisconsin Dells, WI. It generated $1,777.00 to assist with registration fees for 126 STAR Event participants who competed in Atlanta, GA this past summer.

SPECIAL APPRECIATION

We would like to recognize and thank Herbert H. Kohl Charities, Inc. for contributing $250.00 to the Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation.

Rubi Red, LLC, Wisconsin Rapids, WI has continued their partnership with Wisconsin FCCLA and the Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation with donations based on sponsored fund raisers conducted by chapters and product ingredients for STAR Event competitions and raffle items. We thank Marcy Berlyn for contributions to the work of the Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation and Wisconsin FCCLA. We would like to encourage chapters to arrange a fund raiser that helps to contribute to our sponsored programs and generate funds for your chapter by contacting tonya@rubireds.com or by calling 715.712.0324.

Stone Lake Cranberries is also recognized for their generous contributions to Wisconsin FCCLA and the Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation. Their $500.00 contribution helps cover food expenses for ingredients used in the Wisconsin State FCCLA STAR Event Culinary and Pastry Events.

The contributions of these companies and all the other corporations and businesses that made donations to the Foundation's Annual Raffle held at the FCCLA State Leadership Conferences is greatly appreciated.

The foundation would like to thank the University of Wisconsin – Stout's Graphic Communications Department for their contributions in helping to develop the foundation display materials and the layout and printing of the Foundation Annual Report. Your expertise is a welcomed collaboration as your students develop applied skills in creating the printed resources for the foundation.

APPRECIATION GOES TO RETIRING WISCONSIN FCCLA BOARD MEMBERS

The foundation would like to thank Amy Korbel and Tina Peterson for their service to the Wisconsin FCCLA Foundation Board of Directors. We wish Tina (Gilbertson) Peterson well as her position on the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board expands into new responsibilities and commitments in promoting Wisconsin Dairy Products and the development of educational resources.
